Sixteen friends of Master Louis Frattini gathered at his home, 45 Berlin street, last evening to remind him of his birthday anniversary. The party was something of a surprise to Master Louis, but he proved himself equal to the occasion.

The guests provided a pleasing program of games, music and recitations. Nearly every member of the company responded either with a song or with a short verse. Among those who contributed solos were Peter Giachero, Miss Casellini, Miss Josephine Rizzi and Miss Adeline Frattini. One of the pleasurable features of the party came when Miss Inez Maberini, speaking in behalf of the guests, presented the host with a handsome gold watch fob. The recipient acknowledged the gift in a most little speech. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, coffee and sandwiches brought the affair to a close. Master Frattini is employed in the Barre offices of the Consolidated Lighting Co.
